P.B. Bell Named on List of Best Places to Work in Phoenix by *Phoenix Business Journal

Family-Owned Multifamily Real Estate Firm Recognized on Prestigious Local List

PHOENIX (December XX, 2018) – P.B. Bell, a leader in multifamily housing development, property management and acquisitions, was recently recognized in the Best Places to Work in Phoenix by Phoenix Business Journal in the midsize category, which included companies with up to 249 employees.

“We are honored to be one of the businesses recognized by Phoenix Business Journal for our efforts to create a positive, inclusive culture that engages our employees and allows them to bring out their best selves,” said R. Chapin Bell, CEO and president of P.B. Bell. “We are proud to have so many committed employees who chose P.B. Bell to grow their careers.”

P.B. Bell specializes in the development, acquisition and management of luxury apartment communities. Based in Scottsdale, P.B. Bell remains family owned after more than 40 years and promotes a unique company culture. With more than 200 employees in the Valley, P.B. Bell invests in its team and helps them grow professionally and personally.

Companies nominate themselves for the Best Places to Work program each year during the spring and early summer months through the Phoenix Business Journal's website. Research/consulting firm Quantum Workplace arranged for the employees of participating companies to take an online survey regarding their employer, then compiled and ranked the results. Not all participating firms were recognized as a Best Place to Work in Phoenix. The midsize category is for businesses with 100 to 249 employees. Other information points taken into consideration included business descriptions, top local executive and other information obtained from Quantum Workplace included representatives of the participating companies and websites of those companies.
